35 Lydia Street, Junee

Positioned to excite in one of Junee's most sought after locations, stands this proud double story brick veneer residence that has been maintained impeccably. You will be overwhelmed from the beginning with the size, presentation and attention to detail that this homeowner has committed to this property. Welcomed with multiple living zones; formal lounge of generous size flows through to kitchen, meals and additional family room which was a clever extension added. High ceilings, internally repainted and updated carpets will leave you with nothing to do. Kitchen is positioned as the heart with quality appliances and practical storage options...
