1260 Ironbong Road, Bethungra

Embark on an adventure with this substantial tract of land at 1260 Ironbong Road, Bethungra. A pristine canvas awaiting the agricultural enthusiast or recreation seeker. Approximately spanning an impressive 5 km in length and 3 km in width, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a significant piece of rural New South Wales.

Set against the backdrop of the rolling hills, this 852 acre property, thoughtfully divided into 4 paddocks, boasts 100 acres of lower cleared land, presenting the ideal setup for farmers looking to cultivate or graze livestock. The land is a harmonious blend of utility and natural wonder, featuring 9 dams and seasonal creeks that meander through the terrain, ensuring ample water resources....

A journey of 3 km along a public road will lead you to the property's boundary, a welcoming gateway to the tranquil seclusion that this land offers. The crowning jewel is the main dam, constantly replenished by a creek descending from the hills, paired with a 40,000-litre tank that, through a holding tank, gravity feeds to the unapproved hut on-site. This rustic abode, complete with a concrete slab foundation,...
